

Do you take daily asthma medications and still noticing shortness of breath?

You may be eligible to participate in a clinical research study of an investigational medication in the form of a pill to be taken in addition to your current therapy.

Do you meet the following Qualifications?

- Ages 12 and over with asthma
- Taking daily asthma medication
- Currently a non-smoker

Please call our research team. Study related medications will cost nothing. Compensation for time and travel may be provided.

 Allergy, Asthma &
Sinus Center, S.C.
(414) 529-8519 or email us at studies@myaasc.com